137th Session of the Synod of the Diocese of Ottawa
November 01-03, 2018

Welcome

Welcome to the Diocese of Ottawa's Synod which begins with a Eucharist service at Christ Church Cathedral on Thursday evening at 7:00pm and continues at the St. Elias Centre, 750 Ridgewood Ave., on Friday and Saturday. The Synod, which meets annually, brings together about 350 people from parishes and congregations of the Diocese to oversee all areas of Diocesan life, including governance, finances, and programs.

The theme for this years Synod is "Anglican Ministry in a Complex World"

Highlights and business of this Synod include the following:

- Bishop John H. Chapman will present his address during the opening service (Nov. 01, 7:00pm)
- A Greeting by Will Postma, Executive Director of The Primate's World Relief and Development Fund (Nov. 02, 9am)
- The Keynote Speaker will be The Rev. Dr. Richard LeSueur, Interim Dean, St. George's College, Jerusalem

In this kit, you will find the following:

- a draft agenda for our Synod
- a glossary of Synod terms
- the Media Policy for our Synod
- a fact sheet
- Etiquette 101: How to address the clergy
- a media badge

Your presence at our Synod is welcome, and a table has been provided for your use inside the plenary hall. Please feel free to join us for refreshments and meals.

You are, however, reminded of the following:

- No interviews are to be conducted in the plenary hall.
- Recording devices are allowed at the discretion of the chair.
- You must wear your media badge at all times while attending this event.
- TV cameras may be able to plug into the sound board.

The Diocese:

The Diocese of Ottawa, centred in the national capital of Canada, straddles the Ottawa River and includes the eastern counties of Ontario and the western counties of Quebec.

The Diocese includes a mix of urban and small rural farming and forestry communities, stretching from Cornwall to Hawkesbury in the east to beyond Mattawa in the west, and from Perth, Smiths Falls, and Morrisburg in to the South to beyond Maniwaki, Quebec, in the north.

It consists of more than 90 congregations or local churches in more than 50 parishes. For ease of communications, the parishes have been grouped into 10 regional Deaneries, each headed by an Archdeacon who is assisted by a Regional Dean.

The Diocese is part of the Ecclesiastical Province of Ontario (which also includes the Dioceses of Niagara, Toronto, Ontario, Huron, Algoma, and Moosonee) in the Anglican Church of Canada.

Glossary of Synod

Synod: Synod is the regional convention or council of the clergy and people of the Diocese. It also refers to the legal name of the Diocese, The Incorporated Synod of the Diocese of Ottawa. In this alternative meaning, we refer to the central office of the Diocese as the Synod Office.

Synod Member or Synod Delegate: At its Vestry or Annual General Meeting, each parish elects a Synod member or members to share in the deliberations of the Synod. A member does not represent the concert and issues of the particular parish, but rather as a member of the Body of Christ gathered at Synod under the guidance of the Holy Spirit to share the discussions and decisions of Synod as a whole.

Convening Circular and Synod Journal: The Convening Circular is the formal notice of the calling of Synod and the package of information of the proposed business. The Synod Journal is the formal record of the proceedings. In recent years, the Synod Circular becomes the Synod Journal following Synod.

Bishop: Bishops are elected by the Diocese or by the Ecclesiastical Province, according to the particular canons of the Diocese. A bishop almost always presides over a Diocese and is sometimes called “The Diocesan Bishop.” The Canadian House of Bishops is a twice-yearly meeting of all bishops across Canada and makes recommendations to General Synod, the main decision-making body of the Anglican Church of Canada, on matters of church policy and nominates candidates for Primate. The Bishop of the Diocese of Ottawa is The Rt. Rev. John Holland Chapman.

Chair of Synod: The Canons, Bylaws, and Regulations of the Diocese of Ottawa (the CBRs) state that the Bishop is to chair the meeting of the Synod. The Bishop has the option, however, to appoint another person to act on his or her behalf.

The Dean: Dean is the title of the Rector of Christ Church Cathedral, who is also the Dean of Ottawa. The Dean is the most senior priest in the Diocese and often acts on behalf of the Bishop, eg. may chair Synod and acts in the Bishop’s place when he or she is absent for an extended period of time. The Dean of Ottawa is The Very Rev. Shane Parker.

Secretaries of Synod: There are two Secretaries of Synod; a Lay Secretary, Kim Chadsey, elected by the Diocesan Council for a one-year renewable term; and a Clerical Secretary, The Ven Doug Richards, appointed by the Bishop. They oversee the meeting of Synod and follow-up the motions and initiatives arising from the meeting. They are also responsible for the work of the Diocesan Council which oversees the work of the Diocese between the annual meetings of Synod.

The Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor(s): Members of the legal profession appointed by the Bishop to advise Synod on legal, procedural, and other related matters. The Chancellor of Ottawa is Robyn MacKay.

Canon: An Ecclesiastical Law or Regulation of the Diocese/Province/National church or an honorary title conferred by a Bishop on a priest or (if the Canon of the Diocese permit) on a lay member of the Church.

A Vote by Orders: Occasionally, at the meeting of Synod, a vote is held by orders of by houses, eg. to pass a revision to a Canon of the Diocese or to elect a Bishop. We have the order of house of the laity and the order or house of the clergy. A vote by order usually is on a very weighty matter. For a motion to be passed, it must have a majority in each house. In the Provincial and General Synod, there is a third order, the House of Bishops.

Archdeacon: Usually refers to a priest appointed by the Bishop to work with the clergy and people of a particular area of the Diocese known as a Deanery. The Diocese of Ottawa has ten Deaneries. Archdeacons assist the Bishop in a wide range of administrative and pastoral duties.

Regional Deans: Each Deanery of the Diocese has a Regional Dean to work with the Archdeacon in facilitating the pastoral and administrative work of the Deanery. The clergy — or clerics — of the Deanery nominate a member of the clergy of that Deanery to the Bishop to appoint as the Regional Dean.

Archivist: The primary role of the office is maintenance of all official acts of the Diocese, which includes the CBRs, records of all appointments of church officers and clergy, complete parish registers, etc.

Resolutions Committee: One of the committees appointed for the duration of the Synod is the Resolutions Committee. The primary role of the committee is to review all the motions brought to the Synod prior to their being discussed by the Synod. The committee ensures that a motion is clear, is within the Synod's jurisdiction, and will achieve what the mover and seconder of the motion intend.
